

Geography Department is about :

In our college Geography department started at general level in 1971 and special level in 1991.

Geography as a discipline constitute and interface between Natural science on the one hand and social science on the other. Geography is an interdisciplinary subject. The subject Geography is useful for map interpretation, Map making and Surveying.

The subject matter of Geography shows the importance of the department of Metrological Department, Department of Defense, Transportation, Environmental Law, GIS, GPS, Remote Sensing and competition Exam.

Mr. N. D. Patil was the 1st Head of Department from 1971 to 1992. Prof. Dr. M. M. Saindane Joined in 20 Aug 1990 and Promoted as Head of Department since 1992. He's Promoted as a Professor since 21st sept. 2021. Mr. V.S. Dhangar Joined from 1st July 1991, Mr. S. T. Kudase joined 1st July 1991 and left the department 1994. Mr. M.L. Savant joined from 1st July 1996 and left in 1998. Dr. S.R. Govardhane joined from 14th July 2008.

The Geography department has the following Equipments:

Prof. Dr. M. M. Saindane
Head, Department of Geography

Prof. Dr. M. M. Saindane (Head of Department),
Mr. V. S. Dhangar (Associate Prof.)

Models (River Depositional and Erosional Work)

Mirror sterio Scope

Plane Table Survey

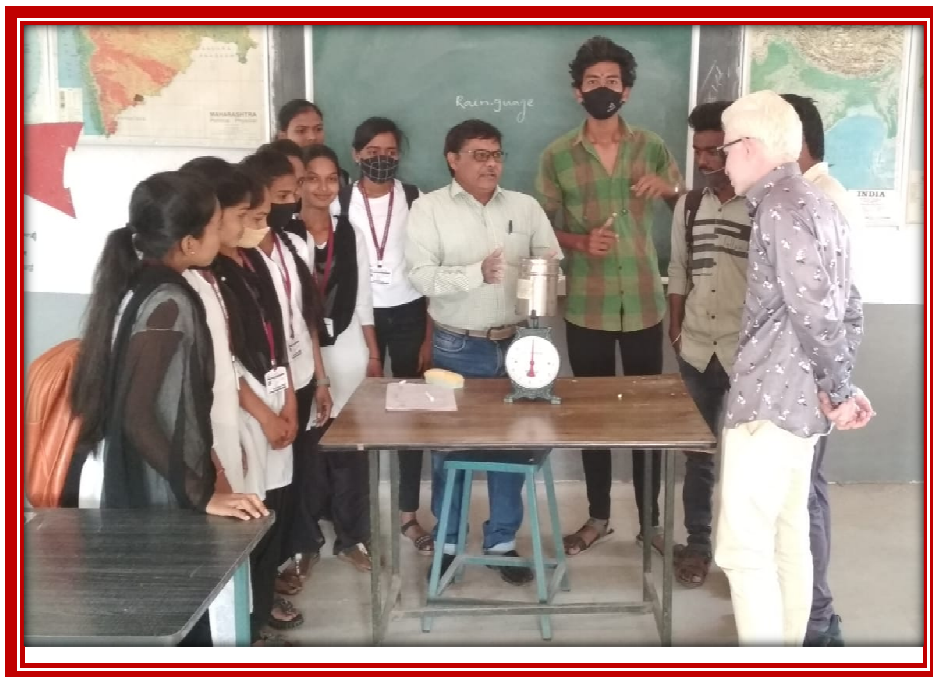

Prismatic Compass Survey

Wind Vane : On the land station the direction is found out with the help of wind vane.

Dry and Wet bulb Thermometer

Rain Gauge: The amount of rainfall is recorded with the help of Rain Gauge.

Cup Anemometer: This instrument is used to measure wind speed.

GPS (Global Positioning System)